How to find out if you like the opposite sex? Signs, recommendations, psychology. A representative of the stronger sex is in love, although he hides his own feelings?

Find out about the feelings of an adult man will be easier, so ka doubtful that a self-sufficient person will hide his interest. And, of course, if you really like him, he will try to win your attention with all his might.

We reveal secrets: how to understand that you like a young man

To establish itself in a man's feelings, pay attention to the following symptoms:

First, of course, courtship. This moment is the main thing in a sweet romantic game. Gifts and meetings in the cafe are all unambiguous signs of concrete feelings towards a woman.

Also, the “symptom” is curiosity about the different spheres of the girl's life. A man is interested in studying, or, for example, work, her problems in the family. He will try to support the girl, put his shoulder in a difficult moment.

Men tend to look more at the women they like, touch them – let's say, give a hand to a girl not only on leaving the transport, but also descending the stairs.

Mature, self-confident men do not spend a lot of time on flirting. Since you are cute to him, then he surely will be the first to ask you to become a couple.

The main “symptoms” of the fact that you like a guy

If you compare teenagers or guys with men, it is much harder to learn about sympathy, because many of them choose to hide their emotions, although they continue to think about the girl who likes them. But in psychology, there are still signs that you can “compute” the real feelings of the stronger sex.

Sight

The very first thing a young man gives and his mood is a look. The guy always, even sometimes without noticing it, will begin to carefully consider the girl he liked. No one argues, he will probably do it in public, but in most cases, young guys prefer to admire gradually.

You can notice that you are interested in a boyfriend or stranger with you when he:

- Often furtively looking to the side where you are, although talking with other people;
- he looks at you when he thinks that you do not see it (but he, probably, forgets about the side vision)).
