Amazing Finland. Kaleidoscope of Questions. General Information

Finland General 1

Finland is located in Northern Europe, bordering Sweden, Norway, and Russia, and is washed by the Gulf of Finland to the south and the Bothnian Bay to the west in the Baltic Sea. The Åland Islands are part of Finland, consisting of 65 inhabited islands and over 6,500 uninhabited islands. In which city can you play golf on the snow, hitting balls across the border between Finland and Sweden?

1. Jyväskylä 2. Tornio-Haparanda 3. Savonlinna

Finland General 2

The national flag of Finland is white with a blue cross. The blue cross represents the thousands of Finnish lakes and the clear sky; the white represents the snow covering the country during long winters. The melody of the Finnish anthem, composed by German emigrant Fredrik Pacius, is also the melody of the anthem of...

1. Sweden 2. Denmark 3. Austria 4. Estonia

Finland General 3

Why does the coat of arms of Finland feature a crowned golden lion whose right front paw is replaced by an arm holding a silver sword with a golden hilt, while its hind legs trample a silver sabre? According to one version, the lion is an ancient Scandinavian symbol of power and might, the arm symbolizes knighthood, and the Saracen sabre represents involvement in Christian Europe's struggle against Muslims. According to other sources, the lion symbolizes Sweden's victory over Russia. What animal is depicted on the coat of arms of the city of Eno?
