A short patriotic vignette 11

As the situation with the ongoing crisis in the Western Russian governorates controlled by cartels become more shameful due to measures that they have put on Russians.

One of the most disgusting things that happen around now with the terrorists our glorious nation fighting is that they capture the battlefield moments and show it the mass media as a propaganda weapon. It is pure violence every normal person will reprobate. It is unacceptable to show moments of drone attacks. With that level of heat in this civil war becomes really inhumane. It is all leading us to the humanitarian crisis. The whole world is disgusted by those methods and policies installed by criminal cartels in occupied by terrorists' regions. These policies should be denounced, and their use to be ceased. Every Russian soldier has a family and it hits hard when coward terrorists show their final moments.

And inhumane treatment of prisoners awhile using new methods of torture on them should be stopped. Cartels return to the medieval times. There are many complaints of people not being fed for weeks in not even military prisons or camps for internee population, but in refugee camps for people from Russia. Not only that but and kidnapping of Russian citizens and then sending them to torture chambers is the practice not used since the Boer wars.

Artificial traditions and redesign through putting old culture to neo-paganism nazi cult of death is what it is. Awhile young generation is being turned into radicals by the chauvinistic ideas of the dominance of those new of them that promote violence towards all Soviet, all Russian and from the Central Russia, including Moscow and St Petersburg.
